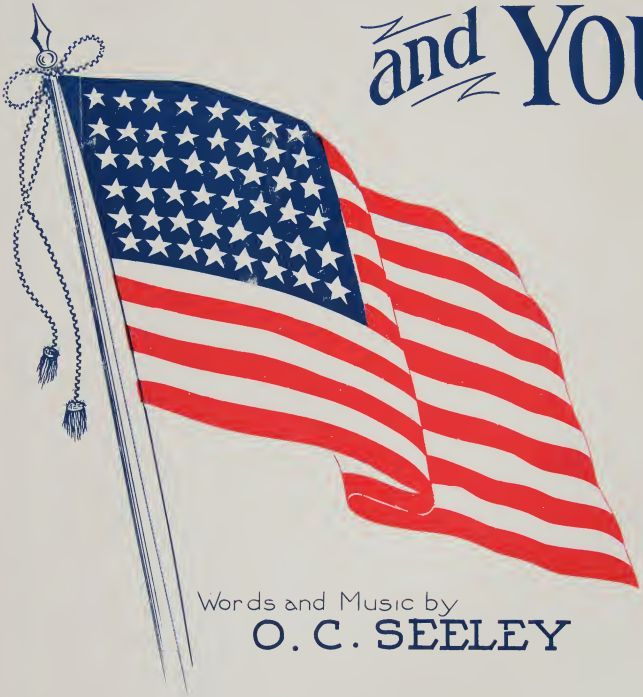
TO AMERICA and YOU



Words and Music by
O. C. SEELEY

PUBLISHED BY
Seeley and Castator
Ponca City Okla

To America and You

By O. C. SEELEY

m
f
The moon was soft - ly shed - ding, its Some - where in the trench - es, for VAMP
p m rays of sym - pa - thy, The whip - poor - will was sing - ing his sad all hu - man - i - ty, A lad fights brave - ly on to win the p
m lay. The time had come for part - ing, he held her ten - der - day. While her true heart is pray - ing, and wait - ing pa - tient -
p
m

Copyright MCMXVIII by C. O. Seeley ly: She said good - bye, then heard him soft - ly say:

ly, And while she waits, she longs to hear him say:
p m p
CHORUS
Hear the bu gle call - ing, call - ing dear for me, pp
Soon I will be fight - ing for God and Lib - er - ty, f
When we've won the vic t'ry, when the war is through,
p m 1
2
I'll re - turn my dar - ling, To A - mer - i - ca and you. you
p f
p
p

Rayner-Dalheim & Co.
Music Print Chicago